ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Why CSAT?

Being just a qualifying paper, we tend to take CSAT for granted and hence allocate very little time for its preparation. This can sometimes backfire. Over the years now it has been noticed that a good number of students comfortably clearing cut off score in GS are failing because they are unable to achieve qualifying marks in CSAT. Thus, CSAT becomes an important aspect of Civil Services Prelims Examination.

With our nine years of experience in Competitive Examination, we have seen many fall to the problem of (a) taking a subject for granted, & (b) not working on known weak areas. We believe that (a) in any competition, taking any area for granted is suicidal & (b) CSAT must be actively prepared for, if you have not solved aptitude subjects in a while. Also, as is the nature of Aptitude Test, while practice is what will help you through, a teacher handholding you hugely reduce the time taken to prepare & secure yourself a place in Mains. This is especially true if you have a known problem with CSAT.

Why ForumIAS?

- At ForumIAS, we have continuously innovated to close the gap between aspirants and good preparation.
- We started the Mains Guidance Program in 2016, where 74 out of 86 students secured their first interview call.

- In 2018, we started the Select Focus Group for Prelims helped hundreds of students write their first Mains.
- By CSE 2019, every 3rd candidate selected in the civil services examination is an enrolled ForumIAS Academy student.
