"Welcome to the vibrant world of Anthropology!"

The Anthropology Foundation Program at ForumIAS offers a dynamic and structured approach to mastering the lively and stimulating field of Anthropology, in tune with the rigorous demands of the UPSC CSE syllabus.

As you embark on your journey towards achieving success in one of the most competitive exams in the world, our classroom program serves as your guiding light, providing you with the necessary tools, resources, and support to navigate through the complexities of Anthropology with confidence and clarity.

Led by experienced faculty members who are experts in Anthropology and well-versed with the intricacies of the UPSC CSE exam pattern, our classroom sessions are carefully curated to cover all aspects of the Anthropology syllabus.

Through engaging lectures, interactive discussions, meticulous engagement with PYQs and practical exercises, we delve deep into the core concepts, theories, and thinkers of Anthropology, ensuring a thorough understanding and retention of key topics.

Our Faculty

Priya Kandola

She has mentoring civil services aspirants since 6 years. She holds a degree in Biotechnology and has also been associated with CSIR-IGIB in Tuberculosis research.

“Priya Mam views Anthropology as always at play all around us at all times. Instead of memorising the concepts, students should focus more on imbibing them and applying them”.

Classroom: Where Learning Flourishes

- 250+ hours of classes.
- One class daily. 5 classes in a week.
- We'll simplify complex terms and concepts with clear explanations, making even the toughest ideas easy for every student to understand and remember.
- The program will cover the full UPSC CSE Anthropology syllabus, Papers I and II, with detailed discussions on core concepts, thinkers, theories, and case studies.
- Our experienced faculty will use multimedia resources like videos, documentaries, and podcasts to enhance lectures, simplify readings, and offer additional insights pertaining to the core requirements of the competitive exam.
- Personalized feedback and support to students, addressing their specific learning needs and ensuring customized necessary interventions to help them develop their scoring potential.
- Incorporate current affairs and relevant social issues into the Anthropology curriculum to enhance students' understanding and application of Anthropological concepts in real-life contexts.
- The students will be provided excellent and comprehensive lecture notes along with references to additional credible study material (textbooks and online resources) to offer them an edge over others and also encourage self-study.

Edward Burnett Tylor (1832-1917)

He was an English anthropologist, often hailed as the father of cultural anthropology.

His notable work "Primitive Culture" (1871), introduced the theory of cultural evolution and emphasized the concept of animism.

Handouts: Your hand held Guide to success

Certainly! Handouts in a Anthropology class for UPSC CSE preparation should aim to provide concise and comprehensive summaries of key concepts, theories, and thinkers relevant to the exam.

Some of the core features of our handouts that you just cannot afford to miss:

- Content fully aligned with classroom lecture to make sure students and the faculty remain on the same page.
- Excellent summarizing of an array of key Anthropological concepts like society, culture and evolution with definitions and significance.
- Sharp pointers for captivating introductions and perfect conclusions.
- Use of visual aids like diagrams and flowcharts to offer a more captivating account of complex ideas.
- Case studies and/or examples from everyday life to illustrate real-life applications of sociological concepts.
- Reader-friendly and to the point summaries to help students in retention.
- Study guides outlining class topics to prepare for exams and assignments.

Bronisław Malinowski (1884-1942)

He was a pioneering Polish-British anthropologist renowned for his innovative contributions to ethnography and participant observation.

His methods laid the groundwork for modern ethnographic practices. His key concept was the notion of "participant observation"
