Your Pathway to Preparedness: Equipped for success.

"Welcome to the vibrant world of Anthropology!"

The Anthropology Foundation Program at ForumIAS offers a dynamic and structured approach to mastering the lively and stimulating field of Anthropology, in tune with the rigorous demands of the UPSC CSE syllabus.

As you embark on your journey towards achieving success in one of the most competitive exams in the world, our classroom program serves as your guiding light, providing you with the necessary tools, resources, and support to navigate through the complexities of Anthropology with confidence and clarity.

Led by experienced faculty members who are experts in Anthropology and well-versed with the intricacies of the UPSC CSE exam pattern, our classroom sessions are carefully curated to cover all aspects of the Anthropology syllabus.

Through engaging lectures, interactive discussions, meticulous engagement with PYQs and practical exercises, we delve deep into the core concepts, theories, and thinkers of Anthropology, ensuring a thorough understanding and retention of key topics.

Our Faculty

Priya Kandola

She has mentoring civil services aspirants since 7 years. She holds a degree in Biotechnology and has also been associated with CSIR-IGIB in Tuberculosis research.

“Priya Mam views Anthropology as always at play all around us at all times. Instead of memorising the concepts, students should focus more on imbibing them and applying them”.

Edward Burnett Tylor (1832-1917)

He was an English anthropologist, often hailed as the father of cultural anthropology.

His notable work "Primitive Culture" (1871), introduced the theory of cultural evolution and emphasized the concept of animism.

Handouts: Your hand held Guide to success

Certainly! Handouts in a Anthropology class for UPSC CSE preparation should aim to provide concise and comprehensive summaries of key concepts, theories, and thinkers relevant to the exam.

Some of the core features of our handouts that you just cannot afford to miss:

- Content fully aligned with classroom lecture to make sure students and the faculty remain on the same page.
- Excellent summarizing of an array of key Anthropological concepts.
- Sharp pointers for captivating introductions and perfect conclusions.
- Use of visual aids like diagrams and flowcharts to offer a more captivating account of complex ideas.
- Case studies and/or examples from everyday life to illustrate real-life applications of sociological concepts.
- Reader-friendly and to the point summaries to help students in retention.

Bronisław Malinowski (1884-1942)

He was a pioneering Polish-British anthropologist renowned for his innovative contributions to ethnography and participant observation.

His methods laid the groundwork for modern ethnographic practices. His key concept was the notion of " participant observation"

Regular Assessment : Tracking Progress, Shaping Futures

For students preparing for the UPSC Civil Services Examination (CSE) in Anthropology, regular assessment plays a crucial role in their preparation. In the Anthropology foundation program offered at ForumIAS, following is of crucial significance with regards to assessment:

- Conduct of Sectional + full length tests to ensure revision mirroring the UPSC CSE format to help students work out the challenge of time management and work out essential exam strategies.
- Daily assignments (for PYQ Practice).
- Assessments designed fully in sync with UPSC patterns, including various question formats, to boost students' confidence vis-à-vis the exam.
- Constructive feedback on assessments, emphasizing strengths and areas for improvement.
- Regular revision sessions to reinforce key Anthropology concepts and clarify doubts before exams.
- Test series will also include 6-8 tests post Prelims.

Alfred Radcliffe-Brown(1881-1955)

He was a notable British social anthropologist, renowned for his structural-functional approach in anthropology, which greatly influenced the field during the early to mid-20th century.
