Mentor's Roundtable (Offline-only)

At the end of each session, there will be an in-room roundtable where students dissect current issues, brainstorm answer frameworks and receive feedback. This interactive session cultivates critical thinking and persuasive articulation – benefits that are best realised through face-to-face dialogue.

Faculty Message

For years I have seen aspirants struggle to link what they read in newspapers to the theories they study. My aim with these dynamic sessions is to make that connection natural. We will explore current events through the lens of political theories, and practice Answer writing on dynamic sections of PSIR Syllabus.
