UP Special Crash Course for GS Paper V & VI

A Strategic Booster for 400 Marks

Success in the UP-PSC Mains examination goes beyond subject knowledge—it demands analytical precision, contextual relevance, and strategic answer presentation. Within this framework, General Studies Paper V and VI emerge as the most decisive yet unpredictable components of the examination. With a combined weightage of 400 marks, performance in these UP Special papers can significantly influence the final merit ranking.

Recognizing this critical requirement, ForumIAS presents the UP-PSC Mains 2025 UP Special Crash Course for GS Paper V & VI, designed for aspirants who wish to move beyond fragmented preparation and adopt a structured, mentor-driven approach.

GS Paper V and VI test an aspirant's understanding of UP-specific governance, economy, society, culture, and current developments, along with the ability to present answers with analytical depth and exam maturity. However, many students struggle due to the vast and ambiguous syllabus, unstructured content, limited answer-writing practice, and lack of expert feedback. This crash course is designed to address these challenges directly.

The program offers 16 concept-focused classes in English and हिन्दी medium, emphasizing conceptual clarity and cross-application across GS Papers I, II, and III. Each session includes rigorous answer-writing workshops (15-30 questions per class) to build structure, speed, and confidence. Preparation is reinforced through 9 half-length tests and 2 full-length tests, complete with model answers, detailed discussions, and expert evaluation.
